- Documents of property seizure acts shall be retained in the archive for 5 years from the date of deregistration of the property seizure act.

At the end of the data and document retention period, the Register data and documents shall be deleted and destroyed.

▼ What rights do you have as a data subject and how can you exercise them?

You as a data subject are entitled to address the Centre of Registers for any issues related to processing of your personal data, i.e. you have the following rights:

- The right of access to data (Article 15 of the GDPR)
- The right to rectification of data (Article 16 of the GDPR)

- The right to restriction of processing (Article 18 of the GDPR). Note: this right may be exercised when at least one of the conditions set out in Article 18(1) GDPR is met. Personal data, the processing of which is restricted, can be processed (except for retention) only after obtaining a consent of the data subject, or for the purpose of establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, or for the protection of the rights of another natural person or legal entity, or for reasons of important public interest of the European Union or of the Republic of Lithuania.

Please note that the following data subject rights do not apply to you:

- You do not have the right to data portability in accordance with Article 20 of the GDPR, as the TAAR does not process personal data based on your consent in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) or Article 9(2)(a) of the GDPR, or an agreement in accordance with Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR.
- You do not have the right to object to data processing in accordance with Article 21 of the GDPR, as the Register does not process personal data in accordance with Article 6(1)(e) or (f) of the GDPR, including profiling.
- You do not have the right to request the exclusion of a decision based solely on automated data processing, including profiling, pursuant to Article 22(2)(b) GDPR.
- You do not have the right to request the erasure of personal data ('right to be forgotten') pursuant to the exception set out in Article 17(3)(b) of the GDPR.

All information on the implementation of the rights of data subjects can be found in the Procedure for the Implementation of the Rights of Data Subjects When Processing Personal Data in the Registers and State Information Systems Managed by the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Lithuania approved by Order No 1R-181 of the Minister of Justice of the Republic of Lithuania of 25 June 2020.

If you believe that your rights as a data subject are not being properly implemented, you have the right to contact the State Data Protection Inspectorate at L. Sapiegos St. 17, Vilnius, by e-mail ada@ada.lt, website <http://vdai.lrv.lt>; however, before filing a complaint with this supervisory authority, we recommend that you contact us first and we will try to resolve the issues together with you.

If you believe that we are in breach of the GDPR or other legal acts regulating data processing when processing your personal data and/or you have any questions related to the processing of your personal data and/or the exercise of your rights, you can always contact the Data Protection Officer of the Centre of Registers by e-mail duomenusauga@registrucentras.lt.
