Introduction to Pre-Commercial Procurement (PCP)

Sigutė Stankevičiūtė

Agency for Science,
Innovation and Technology

The objective

- Public procurers can drive innovation from the demand side by acting as technologically demanding customers that buy the development and testing of new solutions.
- PCP challenges industry from the demand side to develop innovative solutions for public sector needs and it provides a first customer reference that enables companies to create competitive advantage on the market.

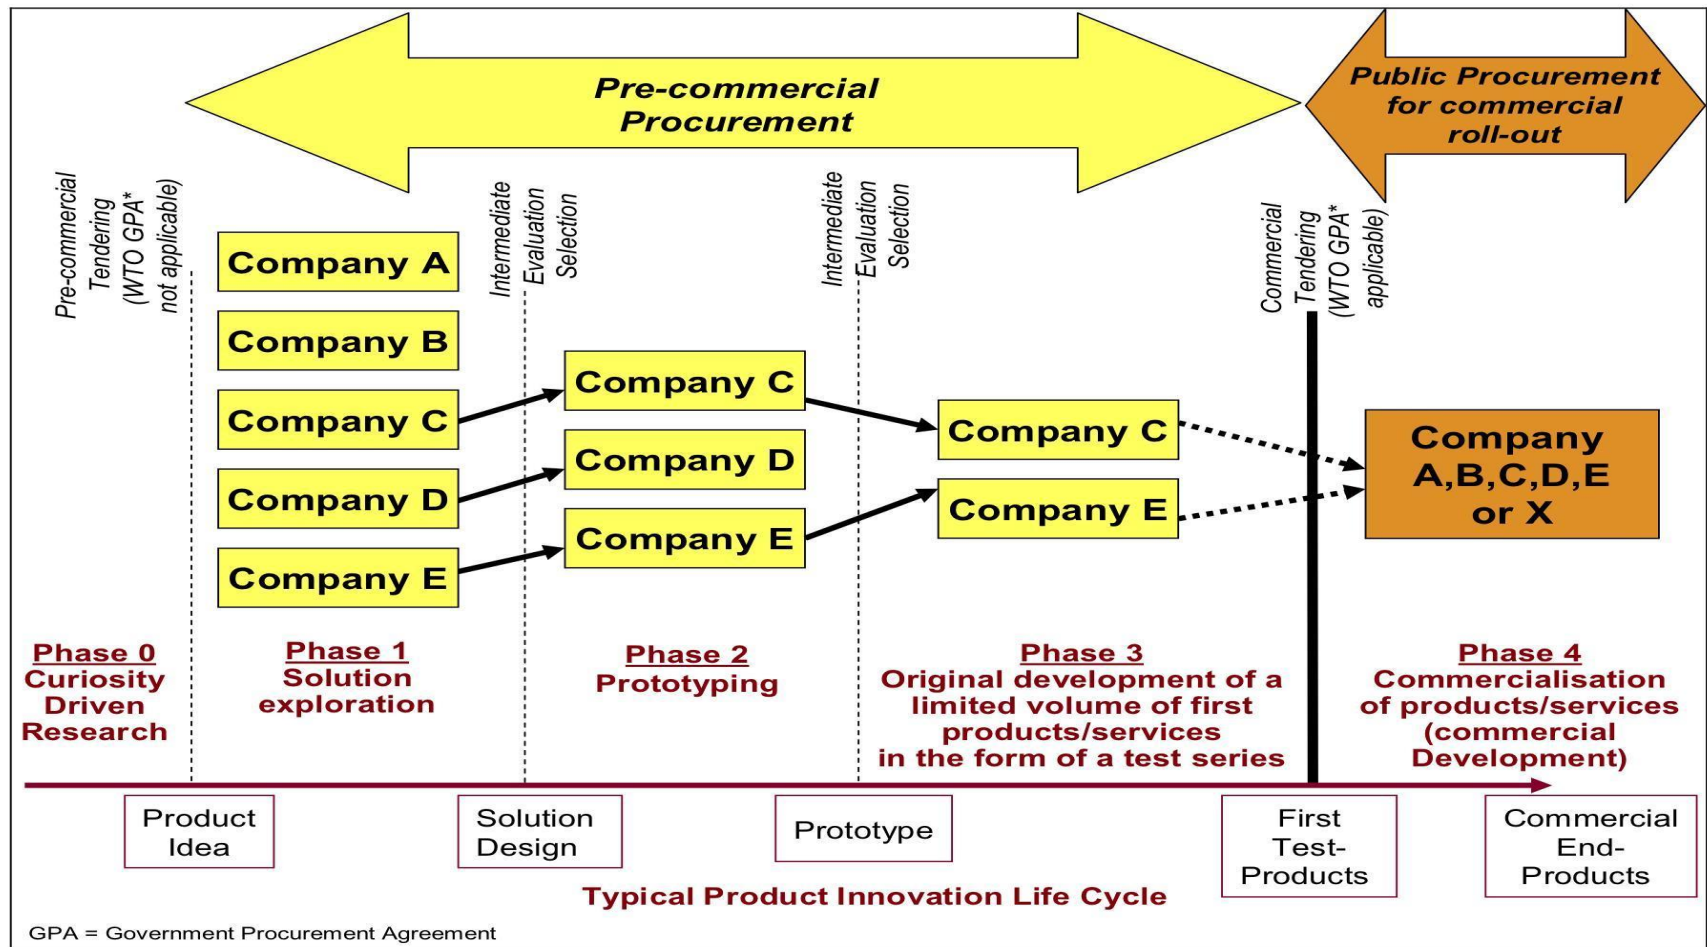

The conception of PCP

Pre commercial procurement (PCP) is an approach to procuring R&D services having an objective to create innovative product.

Mandatory requirements

How it works?

Why to participate?

- You create a product for yourself;
- You know that a market needs this product;
- You already have potential customers;
- A funding percentage is not fixed.

Thank you!
